SHARP Century Brand >

Deyuan Corporation and Japan's Sharp jointly discuss the ODM and brand operation dual-driven business model

- The Japanese electronics giant Sharp, established in 1912, has been hailed as the “Father of the World ‘s LCD.” They have pioneered various groundbreaking technologies, including the invention of LCD displays for computers, ultra-high-definition LCD camcorders, “IGZO” LCD panels, 120-inch 8K ultra-high-definition LCD displays, and commercial smart interactive flat panels.
- Sharp has always adhered to the brand philosophy of "Sincerity and Creativity" and continuously introduced several high-tech products that were "Japan's first" or "World's first."
